

TURNING THE CORNER

*HOW TO SURVIVE AND THRIVE IN THE
CURRENT CLIMATE*

SOLICITORS SEMINAR

THURSDAY 19TH NOVEMBER 2009

OPEN TO VIEW GROUND AND TROPHIES
FROM 17:30

REGISTRATION FROM	17:30
SEMINAR	18:15
NETWORKING & BUFFET	20:00
CLOSE	21:00

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR FOOTBALL CLUB
THE OAK ROOM
BILL NICHOLSON WAY
748 HIGH ROAD
LONDON
N17 0AP

RSVP
TO BOOK YOUR PLACE, PLEASE EMAIL
teresa.hyde@barclayscorporate.com OR CALL
TERESA HYDE ON 020 8273 4423

We understand that it's not easy maintaining business momentum in tough market conditions. Therefore we would like to invite you to a seminar on Thursday 19th November to highlight the current challenges to legal practices and fellow professionals and what you can do to survive and thrive in the current environment..

The evening will give you the opportunity to hear from our guest speakers, network with your peers and collect 2 CPD hours (REF CIW/BARC), so we do hope that you can join us.

Details of the speakers are as follows:

VIV WILLIAMS, MANAGING DIRECTOR, THE 360 LEGAL GROUP

1. Less than 2 years away from outside investment, what should firms be doing to prepare for the implementation of the Legal Services Act?
2. How to construct the law firm of the future

STEVE BILLOT, DIRECTOR, BDO LLP

'In the last 15 months I have been asked to look at over 70 underperforming legal firms. I will share with the audience the common warning signs and some thoughts on how to steer away from the dangers

